COUNTY FARM BUREAU

DORMANT TREES Many growers are worrying about the condition of their deciduous fruit and walnut trees this spring, according to M. H. Kimball, assistant farm advisor in Los Angeles county for the University of California. Inquiries and comments are frequent to the effect that walnut, peach, apricot, and other deciduous fruit trees must be almost dead, as they are slow coming into bloom and in putting out leaves.

at Narbonne High School

A day in old Rome will be spent "Animi causa ad libitum" (just for fun) by the Societas Latina, Latin club of Narbonne high school. The pages of time will be rolled back to show a Roman house as it looked about 4000 years ago.

March 22 (XI anti dies Kalends April) will be the big night for the annual Roman banquet, and the school cafeteria will be converted into a Roman house.

There is nothing one can do to bring them out. Irrigation is of no avail, in fact irrigation should be delayed until the trees have had a chance to develop leaves and the water in the soil.

Medical and Dental Care For Indigents

Federal Emergency Relief Funds Available For Service to Ailing Arrangements are expected to be completed before the end of the month for providing medical and dental care for indigent persons, through the county and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, according to the county charities department.

Explanation of the new set-up was made by R. C. Revinson, state emergency relief administrator, in a letter to the board of supervisors.

"The Federal Emergency Relief Funds are made available to counties to meet the costs of emergency relief, including food, clothing, shelter and medical care outside of institutions," the letter stated. "Funds are not specifically granted for any one of these items. It is understood that funds made available by the state emergency relief commission for emergency relief in Los Angeles county may and should be used to provide any or all of the above-named requirements of those in need by reason of unemployment.

"Medical or dental services to such persons should be provided in district offices, as each individual case may require, in the same manner that orders are issued for other items of relief. The county will be reimbursed on claims for such medical care supported by vouchers in the same manner as other claims for food, clothing and shelter.

"Dental care," the letter explains, "is to be limited to emergency extractions and repair."

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DOINGS

The Torrance Evening school wishes to announce the organizing of two new classes, teachers for which are furnished by the emergency educational program. A class in refining and production of petroleum will meet on Monday evening only, from 7 to 9 o'clock. The course will consist of the production, refining and testing of petroleum. This course is especially valuable to station operators but is open to anyone interested.

A class for those interested in organizing a band meets every Thursday evening under the direction of Mr. Hadler. Twenty-two were enrolled last Thursday.

The topic for discussion at the forum this week is on the general subject of banking. A speaker sent out from the Banking Institute will speak, followed by a general discussion led by Dr. Sewell.

The chorus, composed of the choirs from the four churches, Methodist, Baptist, Central and Christian, is planning to give a concert in the gym at the high school on Thursday, March 29, at 8 p. m.

IN THE COOLER

MERCED, Calif. (U.P.)—After entering a cold storage room to inspect some wild game, Wallace Ford found the door had closed and he was a prisoner. It took him an hour and a half, using his knife to cut a hole in the heavy door. Then he spent the remainder of the day waiting outside.

Young Orator Will Speak At Bond Meeting

Miss Alice Burger, Hi School Student, On Program Tomorrow Urging adoption of the proposed $20,411,497 safety school bond issue at the coming election of March 20, Alice Burger, a student of Torrance high school, will be one of the principal speakers at Torrance high school on March 15 at 1:00 p. m.

The speaker is reported ready to show that a bond issue is the only way to provide funds for bringing school buildings into conformity with new safety building codes adopted since the earthquake of last March.

It also will be shown that bonds will aid a return to prosperity by giving work to thousands of persons.

Organizations and civic leaders having welfare of children at heart and realizing the calamity that would be suffered if a major quake took place during school hours, are endorsing the bonds.

PROBATION HEARING POSTPONED TO MARCH 20

What sentence will be given Robert J. Dillon and William A. Thomas, Torrance residents charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, will not be decided until March 20.

Sentencing of the pair was continued until next Tuesday when their case came on for hearing in Superior Judge Samuel W. Blake's court.
